ENGINEERS FOR SUSTAINABLE ENERGY
SOLUTIONS KENTUCKY(ESES), USA

Is organizing a webinar on

“CRITICAL ISSUES IN MANAGING THE PLASTIC WASTE CRISES IN DEVELOPING REGIONS”

on 6th September 2021 at 5 PM IST

PREAMBLE

This webinar intends to create awareness and to address the necessary issues of managing the plastic waste. World needs to tackle the plastic pollution crisis before it's too late'. The extent of the problems caused by the world's addiction to plastic are becoming ever more apparent. The issue of unmanaged and mismanaged plastic waste is especially acute in developing countries, where the infrastructure for collection, reuse and recycling is often insufficient or lacking. For the developing world, successful strategies must be implemented which include the transformation of plastic waste into fuel. The webinar intends to take a step-in above direction in light of MOU signed between NIT Srinagar and ESES, Kentucky University USA

VISION OF THE DEPARTMENT
